TEATRE GAUDI

A new room. A young space. An old project. A temple. A different space. Teatre Gaudí Barcelona - Sala Pier bulk of the Teatre de la Nau. "A teatro de arena", "an empty space". A container... We do four scribbles, a budget, a project's feasibility, programming. We give a target to 500 m<sup>2</sup> of a great neighborhood...

We do what we know and what not, as I said the Xirgu: "invent it yourself". It seems little, everything seems to us shortly. On the other hand not little seems people, the people, the public, society and culture. People will, it will enter the life of Sant Antoni Maria Claret 120 modest space and beat culture. There will be linguistic, literary, musical, plastic, dynamic and technological order. From Tuesday to Sunday during the 12 months of the year. This is the challenge.

Barcelona boiling, breathes, creates, impresses and remorselessly as what already it is: a cultural capital of global reference. We are everywhere: do not want to prove anything. Or discover anything. Not be parents at all. We propose stage works to enjoy. We propose culture, freshness, talent, trade, entertainment, leisure, reflection and risk. If we are wrong, will cost us very dearly. If successful, it will be a party.
